

I have sent this Alert to everyone on either the TWRA or Neighbourhood Watch distribution list.

I am issuing this Alert partly to remind you of two Police related events today (Nov 7th) and tomorrow. Tonight is the talk on how to protect yourself from Cybercrime in Breech Lane Community Centre doors open at 7pm. Tomorrow is an opportunity to hear from both our new Chief Constable and the Police and Crime Commissioner at Holy Trinity Church in Redhill see further details below in an updated version of the Events List.

The second reason for the Alert is to tell you that the November issue of The Tribune is currently being distributed. Many of you will already have received it, and we expect the remaining copies to be delivered within the next week or so. If you have not received a copy by 15th November, please let me know by replying to this bulletin (include your address!) and we will arrange to get one to you. Meanwhile here is a link to read a digital copy online at our website - just click the cover of the latest edition, to open it.

I have also included a link to a flier by my signature below about planned works on the A217 in Lower Kingswood.

The Mini-Library book selections for both adults and children in the Jubilee Woodland have been recently updated just borrow any book you fancy.

Finally you can also find links by my signature to updated posters about the Grand Tadworth Raffle and the Christmas Lighting Events on November 29th. I should note that in early publicity about the Raffle the draw was to be made on the 29th November but the draw is now to take place at 12 noon on Friday 1st December at The Coffee House, Cross Road.
