

I have sent this Alert to both the TWRA and Neighbourhood Watch distribution lists.

The purpose of this Alert is to advise you of two events relating to local roads and to highlight some new events scheduled locally.

1) 20 mph road signs are being erected on Walton Street this week.

2) Average speed check cameras are to be installed on a nearby stretch of Dorking Road next week - two way lights will be in operation at some times during the week.

Also three new events have been added to the event list below - the first is a children's workshop at Tattenham Library "Making a Home for Hedgerow Creatures" to take place from 2 - 3.30 pm on Wednesday 25th October - price £1 per child. This event is organised by Tadworth & Walton Tree Wardens. For further details see poster here www.twra.org.uk

For the second TWRA is pleased to announce the first in a series of "Lunches with a Talk" starting at 12.15 hrs on 31st October. The talk will be on local history, titled "Rediscovering what was happening during World War Two in our villages", and will be given by Lorraine Spindler who is currently working for the National Trust in the Surrey Hill's area on this very topic. The cost will be £20 (non-TWRA Members £25 includes optional joining fee) and will include a light buffet lunch, but exclude any drinks. It will be held in the Barn, at The Fox & Hounds pub, Walton Street, Walton-on-the-Hill. Please contact Jeff Temple, Chair TWRA, Chair@TWRA.org.uk as soon as possible by e-mail if you would like to attend and be sent payment details. See poster here www.twra.org.uk

For the third the children's Christmas Disney Trail in Tadworth shop windows will commence from Monday November 13th.
